

International Certificate in Teaching English as an Additional Language (ICTEAL)

TESL Association of Ontario, Canada, is pleased to grant this certificate to

Brian Blais, OCELT

in recognition of the required knowledge and skills to teach English as an Additional Language abroad.

Sharon Deng
Chair

CONNECTION • COMMUNITY • EMPOWERMENT

Allison Keown
Executive Director

The TESL Ontario accredited training programs include a minimum of 250 hours of TESL theory and methodology training, and at least 30 hours of observation and 20 hours of supervised practice teaching. These programs are offered by recognized Canadian universities, colleges, and school boards. The authenticity of this certificate can be verified through the TESL Ontario Registry of Accredited Members at www.teslontario.org/accredited-members-registry.

Accredited Membership Number: T220163

Accreditation Renewal Due Date: May 2023

This certificate is valid until the renewal due date mentioned above.

TESL Association of Ontario, 27 Carlton Street, Suite 405, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5B 1L2 – T: 416-593-4243, TF: 1-800-327-4827, F: 416-593-0164

www.teslontario.org